Request to Terminate Supervision Prior to the Original Expiration Date

The following information/request is being presented for the Court's review and decision:

Tyrico Johnson began his term of supervised release on November 29, 2013, in the Northern District of Texas, Arlington office. To date, he has continued to abide by the conditions of supervision. Mr. Johnson is employed and resides in Dallas, Texas. A recent criminal records check was completed, which revealed Mr. Johnson has no new arrests or pending criminal activity. He has submitted his DNA sample and all urine specimens taken have returned negative for any illegal controlled substances.

Pursuant to Rule 32.1(c) of the Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure, the Office of the U.S. Attorney was advised of our plan to request an early termination of supervision ten business days prior to submission to the Court. Tyrico Johnson has complied with the rules and regulations of supervised release and is no longer in need of supervision. It is accordingly recommended that he be discharged from supervision.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
